COUNSELING AND ADMISSION:

Mode of Selection:

Admissions are based on the qualifying Examination and merit based counseling conducted by the Admission Monitoring Committee (AMC) of VMRF -DU, Salem.

VMRF (DU) will publish the tentative merit list on the Website www.vinayakamission.com

Counseling Schedule will be made available on the website. Candidate will be called for counseling as per their merit. The candidates should appear for counseling on the stipulated date and time along with all Original Certificate without fail. The counseling will be held at University campus or its constituent colleges. Course and college allotment will be done based on counseling in the order of the rank subject to fulfillment of the eligibility criteria.

Candidates who are not present for counseling on the specified date and time do not have any rights to claim any seat. The candidate should be present for the counseling accompanied by Parent / Guardian. Counseling call to a candidate does not guarantee admission to the programme. No allowances will be paid for attending the counseling.

If the originals are not produced, the candidate will not be allowed to attend the counseling, unless allowed for valid reasons.

Admission will be made strictly on the basis of merit and availability of seats. As soon as the seats are filled admission will be closed.

ADMISSION AFTER SELECTION:

The candidates selected for admission through counseling should pay the Tuition fees and other fees within the specified date, as prescribed by the University. If a candidate fails to remit the fee on or before the stipulated date, his/her admission will get automatically cancelled without any notice.

Original certificates with three sets of Photo copies should be submitted at the time of counseling, if selected for admission

DISCONTINUANCE FROM COURSE OF STUDY

- a) Where any student applies for discontinuance, or without any application discontinues on his / her own, from the course to which he / she has been admitted, for any reason either after the cut-off date of final counseling fixed by the university for admission to the first year of the course concerned or where the seat is rendered vacant without having any chance of being filled up with any other candidate from waiting list etc., such student shall have to remit the tuition fee and other applicable fees for the entire / remaining course period. Unless and until payment of all the prescribed fees for the entire / remaining course period is made to the University, such student shall not be entitled to get any certificate including transfer certificate, mark sheet etc., to be issued by the University.

- b) All students and parents shall be required to furnish a declaration agreeing to the above said conditions at the time of admission.

PREVENTION OF RAGGING

- a) 'Ragging' means indulging in any act by disorderly conduct to a student of an educational Institution, which causes or is likely to cause physical or psychological harm or raising apprehension or shame or embarrassment to that student and includes teasing or abusing or playing practical jokes or causing hurt to such students or asking a student to do any act or to perform something which such student will not in the ordinary course be willing to do. In case, the applicant for admission is found to have indulged in ragging in the past or if it is noticed later that he/she has indulged in ragging, admission may be refused or he/she shall be expelled from the educational institution.
- b) In this context every student of the institution and his/her parents, or guardian is required to submit a combined undertaking at the time of registration / admission in prescribed format (which will be provided by the institution) which is mandatory for registration / admission.
- c) Anti ragging regulations of the University Grants Commission and Indian Nursing Council are forming part of the terms of admissions and are made available to all candidates and their parents for information and compliance. All institutions are obliged to strictly adhere to anti ragging regulations.
